

For nearly 100 years, Easterseals has offered help, hope and answers to more than a million children and adults living with autism and other disabilities or special needs and their families each year. Services and support are provided through a network of more than 550 sites in the U.S. Each center provides exceptional services that are individualized, innovative, family-focused and tailored to meet specific need of the particular community served. From child development centers to medical rehabilitation and job training for people with disabilities, Easterseals offers a variety of services to help people with disabilities address life's challenges and achieve personal goals. Contact your local affiliate today to: visit and tour the center, meet the Easterseals CEO and see how you can work together, or arrange for an Easterseals representative to speak at your club meeting to learn more about services for children and adults with disabilities in your community.
