2024 GFWC Women's History Month Celebration!

On Wednesday, March 6, 2024, GFWC welcomed clubwomen and public guests to headquarters for a celebration of Women's History Month. Guests enjoyed a musical performance by Jude Maboné, Miss District of Columbia 2023. She inspired attendees when she spoke about her community service initiative, Heart Health, and her personal experience with heart disease.

The keynote speaker at this year's event was our very own Women's History & Resource Center Librarian, Joanna Church. She gave guests a look at some rarely-seen artifacts from our collection. If you were not able to attend in person there is a live feed of the event available on GFWC's Facebook page.

Special GFWC history exhibits are now on display. "Federation Fashion" features gowns worn by GFWC International Past Presidents and highlights how fashion is tied to historic moments.

◆ PUT THE SHINE ON YOUR DIAMONDS! ◆

By: Lisa McCoy Hedrick, Membership Committee

Everyone likes to feel valued and wanted. There are countless ways to recognize members for their commitment and dedication. Shining a light on an individual's contribution will help members feel their efforts have value.

Appreciation celebrations can be held anytime during the year to praise members for their years of service. Using a theme for monthly praise – animals, candy bars, flowers, or colors can be fun and creative. Our theme this year was "A Worker Bee like you...Makes Life Sweeter!" Some chocolate, a bee hand towel, soap, and honey were all used to shine the light on a great member. Let club members nominate someone. This is a beautiful way to learn who participates in committee work. Where did a project idea originate? Who picked up or delivered the donations or knitted 50 baby caps? Thanking members publicly and personally helps to build confidence. Being valued for contributions increases the sense of belonging.

The exchange of a Friendship Ball is a tradition symbolizing a deep friendship between two people. A poem goes with the ball, and simple items to exchange are hidden inside – beauty soap, chocolate, seeds from the garden, lip gloss, jewelry, whatever fits inside. You can use this in your club by pulling a name from the membership list and presenting it to that person. She then chooses a name and presents it at the next meeting. If you don't use the ball, use a box or anything that holds small ways to say thank you and give members the feeling of connection with the group.

Build a positive and supportive culture while giving to the community. Regularly celebrating, big or small, can breathe life into the club and benefit the member's experience. And lastly – put it on social media. Let everyone know how much you appreciate your members.

March 1 starts the "Diamond - Shine Bright" Membership Recruitment Campaign focusing on recognition. You can find the Membership Recruitment Campaign Form to record your new members from the last campaign on the Member Portal, Folder "M"

Volunteers in Action: GFWC North Pinellas Woman's Club (FL)

The members of GFWC North Pinellas Woman's Club created journals for the parents of NICU (Neonatal Intensive Care Unit) babies to help them keep notes and track the progress of their babies. This helps nursing staff provide the best care and is a form of therapy for the parents.

Submit photos and a short story about the awesome things YOUR club is doing in the community to PR@gfwc.org.
